“Spanish Fighting Bull”

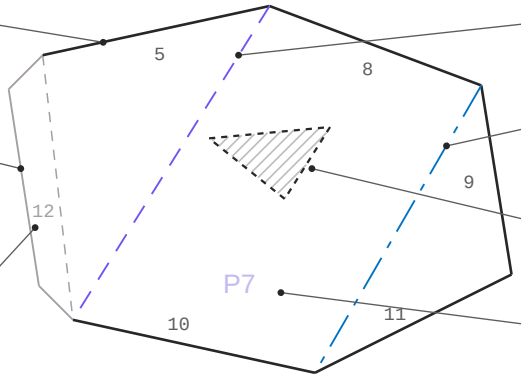

A heavy-browed fighting bull with a broad skull, square muzzle, thick jowl and long lateral horns sweeping out and turning up.

Read the lines

Cut · solid line
Cut right through every outline and numbered edge.

Glue tab · grey lines
Cut round it, fold its dashed base, glue it under the same number.

Seam number · a matching pair
The tab marked 12 glues under the edge marked 12.

Mountain fold · long dashes
Score, then fold the printed side away from you.

Valley fold · dash and dot
Score, then fold the printed side toward you.

Eye panel · fine dots
Cut it out and throw it away.

Piece number · light violet
P1, P2, P3… is the order you build in.

Build it

- ☐ 1 Print at 100% on 160–200 gsm card, never “fit to page”.
- ☐ 2 Measure the 10 cm line on any sheet to check the scale.
- ☐ 3 Score every dashed line with an empty ballpoint.
- ☐ 4 Cut every solid line, around the glue tabs too.
- ☐ 5 Cut out the eye panels and throw them away.
- ☐ 6 Fold: mountains away from you, valleys toward you.
- ☐ 7 Glue in piece order, P1 first, each tab under its number.
- ☐ 8 Start at the nose; close the chin and the back rim last.
- ☐ 9 Join the headband strips and tape the loop inside the rim.
